

Bishop Mwenda urged youth leaders to be strong

Bishop Amon Joel Mwenda of ELCT-Ruvuma Diocese urged youth leaders of the different religions to be strong and to be in the frontline in helping the ones that they lead in order to solve challenges that faces youth in their daily life.

Bishop Mwenda said that in his opening remarks to the three days' seminar focused on building the capacity to the youth leaders which has been prepared by the ELCT HQ Youth Desk Coordinator Rev. Frank Mng'ong'o that has been conducted in Ruvuma Diocese and brought together youth leaders of different religions from 6 Regions southern Tanzania.

Bishop added that it is by now youth passes in many challenges and thus gives them a hard time in terms of making correct decision over various things that cross their life so it is of vital to build the capacity to the youth leaders so to understand and improve the capacity on how to deal and help youth that they lead in their places so be of help to the community where they come from.

The ELCT Deputy Secretary General Mission and Evangelism Rev. Lazaro Rohho said to those youth leaders that it is better they understand different challenges that faces their youth and being able to find correct ways on how to help them due to the environment that they come from.

He also added that due to the changes that are happening to the World it is important for youth to be trained several times to help them to face challenges and changes so to stand firm and being not used politically or others to fulfil bad people's Agenda.

Rev. Frank Mexon Mng'ong'o ELCT Youth Desk Coordinator also said to build the capacity to the youth is one among the technique which will help youth from different places in Tanzania to see and use the opportunities that are available and which might explode due to the fact that youth are tomorrow's Nation.

The four days' seminar is the continuation in building the capacity to the youth leaders of different religions in the Country whereby already it has been done into Mwanza and Tabora Regions aiming at making youth the best coming Nation.
